

Volunteer Videographer
March - October 2021

Trellis for Tomorrow delivers experiential programs in organic gardening, environmental stewardship, and food security that provide practical and behavioral life skills for youth and adults. Our aspiration is to foster compassion and resilience in people and inspire them to build sustainable communities.

What Trellis is Looking For in this Volunteer Position:

Are you a professional or amateur videographer looking to get more involved with area communities? Trellis for Tomorrow is looking for an experienced videographer to capture and/or edit quality video of our work, including gardens in various stages and youth programming in action.

This is a volunteer position. The Trellis for Tomorrow offices are based in Phoenixville, but components of our programs are spread around the region. Our volunteer coordinator will work with volunteers to coordinate schedules and locations.

What Trellis will Need from this Volunteer:

- Availability to dedicate a few hours of time at least once per month March - October
- Ability to deliver any photos captured in high-quality, digital format to Trellis (Trellis will own the rights to all photos)
- Volunteer must be responsible for his/her own transportation to sites
- Criminal and child abuse clearances are required (Trellis can assist in this process)
